Put Beginning Readers on the Right Track with
ALL ABOARD READING™

The All Aboard Reading series is especially designed for beginning readers. Written by noted authors and illustrated in full color, these are books that children really want to read—books to excite their imagination, expand their interests, make them laugh, and support their feelings. With fiction and nonfiction stories that are high interest and curriculum-related, All Aboard Reading books offer something for every young reader. And with four different reading levels, the All Aboard Reading series lets you choose which books are most appropriate for your children and their growing abilities.

Picture Readers
Picture Readers have super-simple texts, with many nouns appearing as rebus pictures. At the end of each book are 24 flash cards—on one side is a rebus picture; on the other side is the written-out word.

Station Stop 1
Station Stop 1 books are best for children who have just begun to read. Simple words and big type make these early reading experiences more comfortable. Picture clues help children to figure out the words on the page. Lots of repetition throughout the text helps children to predict the next word or phrase—an essential step in developing word recognition.

Station Stop 2
Station Stop 2 books are written specifically for children who are reading with help. Short sentences make it easier for early readers to understand what they are reading. Simple plots and simple dialogue help children with reading comprehension.

Station Stop 3
Station Stop 3 books are perfect for children who are reading alone. With longer text and harder words, these books appeal to children who have mastered basic reading skills. More complex stories captivate children who are ready for more challenging books.

In addition to All Aboard Reading books, look for All Aboard Math Readers™ (fiction stories that teach math concepts children are learning in school); All Aboard Science Readers™ (nonfiction books that explore the most fascinating science topics in age-appropriate language); All Aboard Poetry Readers™ (funny, rhyming poems for readers of all levels); and All Aboard Mystery Readers™ (puzzling tales where children piece together evidence with the characters).

All Aboard for happy reading!

Strawberry Shortcake's Show-and-Tell Surprise

By Megan E. Bryant
Illustrated by Scott Neely

Grosset & Dunlap

Strawberry Shortcake
loves school.
School is berry fun!

Strawberry Shortcake
loves show-and-tell the best.
And tomorrow is
show-and-tell day!

Strawberry wants to show
something berry special.
What should she bring?

A book?

Too heavy.

A pencil?

Too tiny.

A painting?

Too messy.

A ball?

Too bouncy.

Strawberry Shortcake
doesn't know
what to bring
for show-and-tell!

After school,
Strawberry Shortcake
walks home.
It is berry windy.

What's that?

It is a bird's nest!

There are no
mama birds around.
There are no
papa birds around.
Who will take care of the egg?

Strawberry Shortcake will!

Strawberry Shortcake
takes the nest home.
She keeps the egg warm.
She keeps the egg safe.

Then Strawberry has
a berry good idea.
She can bring the nest to school
for show-and-tell!

Before school,
Strawberry Shortcake
puts the nest in a box.
She walks to school
berry carefully.

Strawberry waits and waits.

At last,

it is time for show-and-tell.

Orange Blossom shows a plant.

Huckleberry Pie shows a toy car.

Blueberry Muffin shows
a picture.

Angel Cake shows a cake.

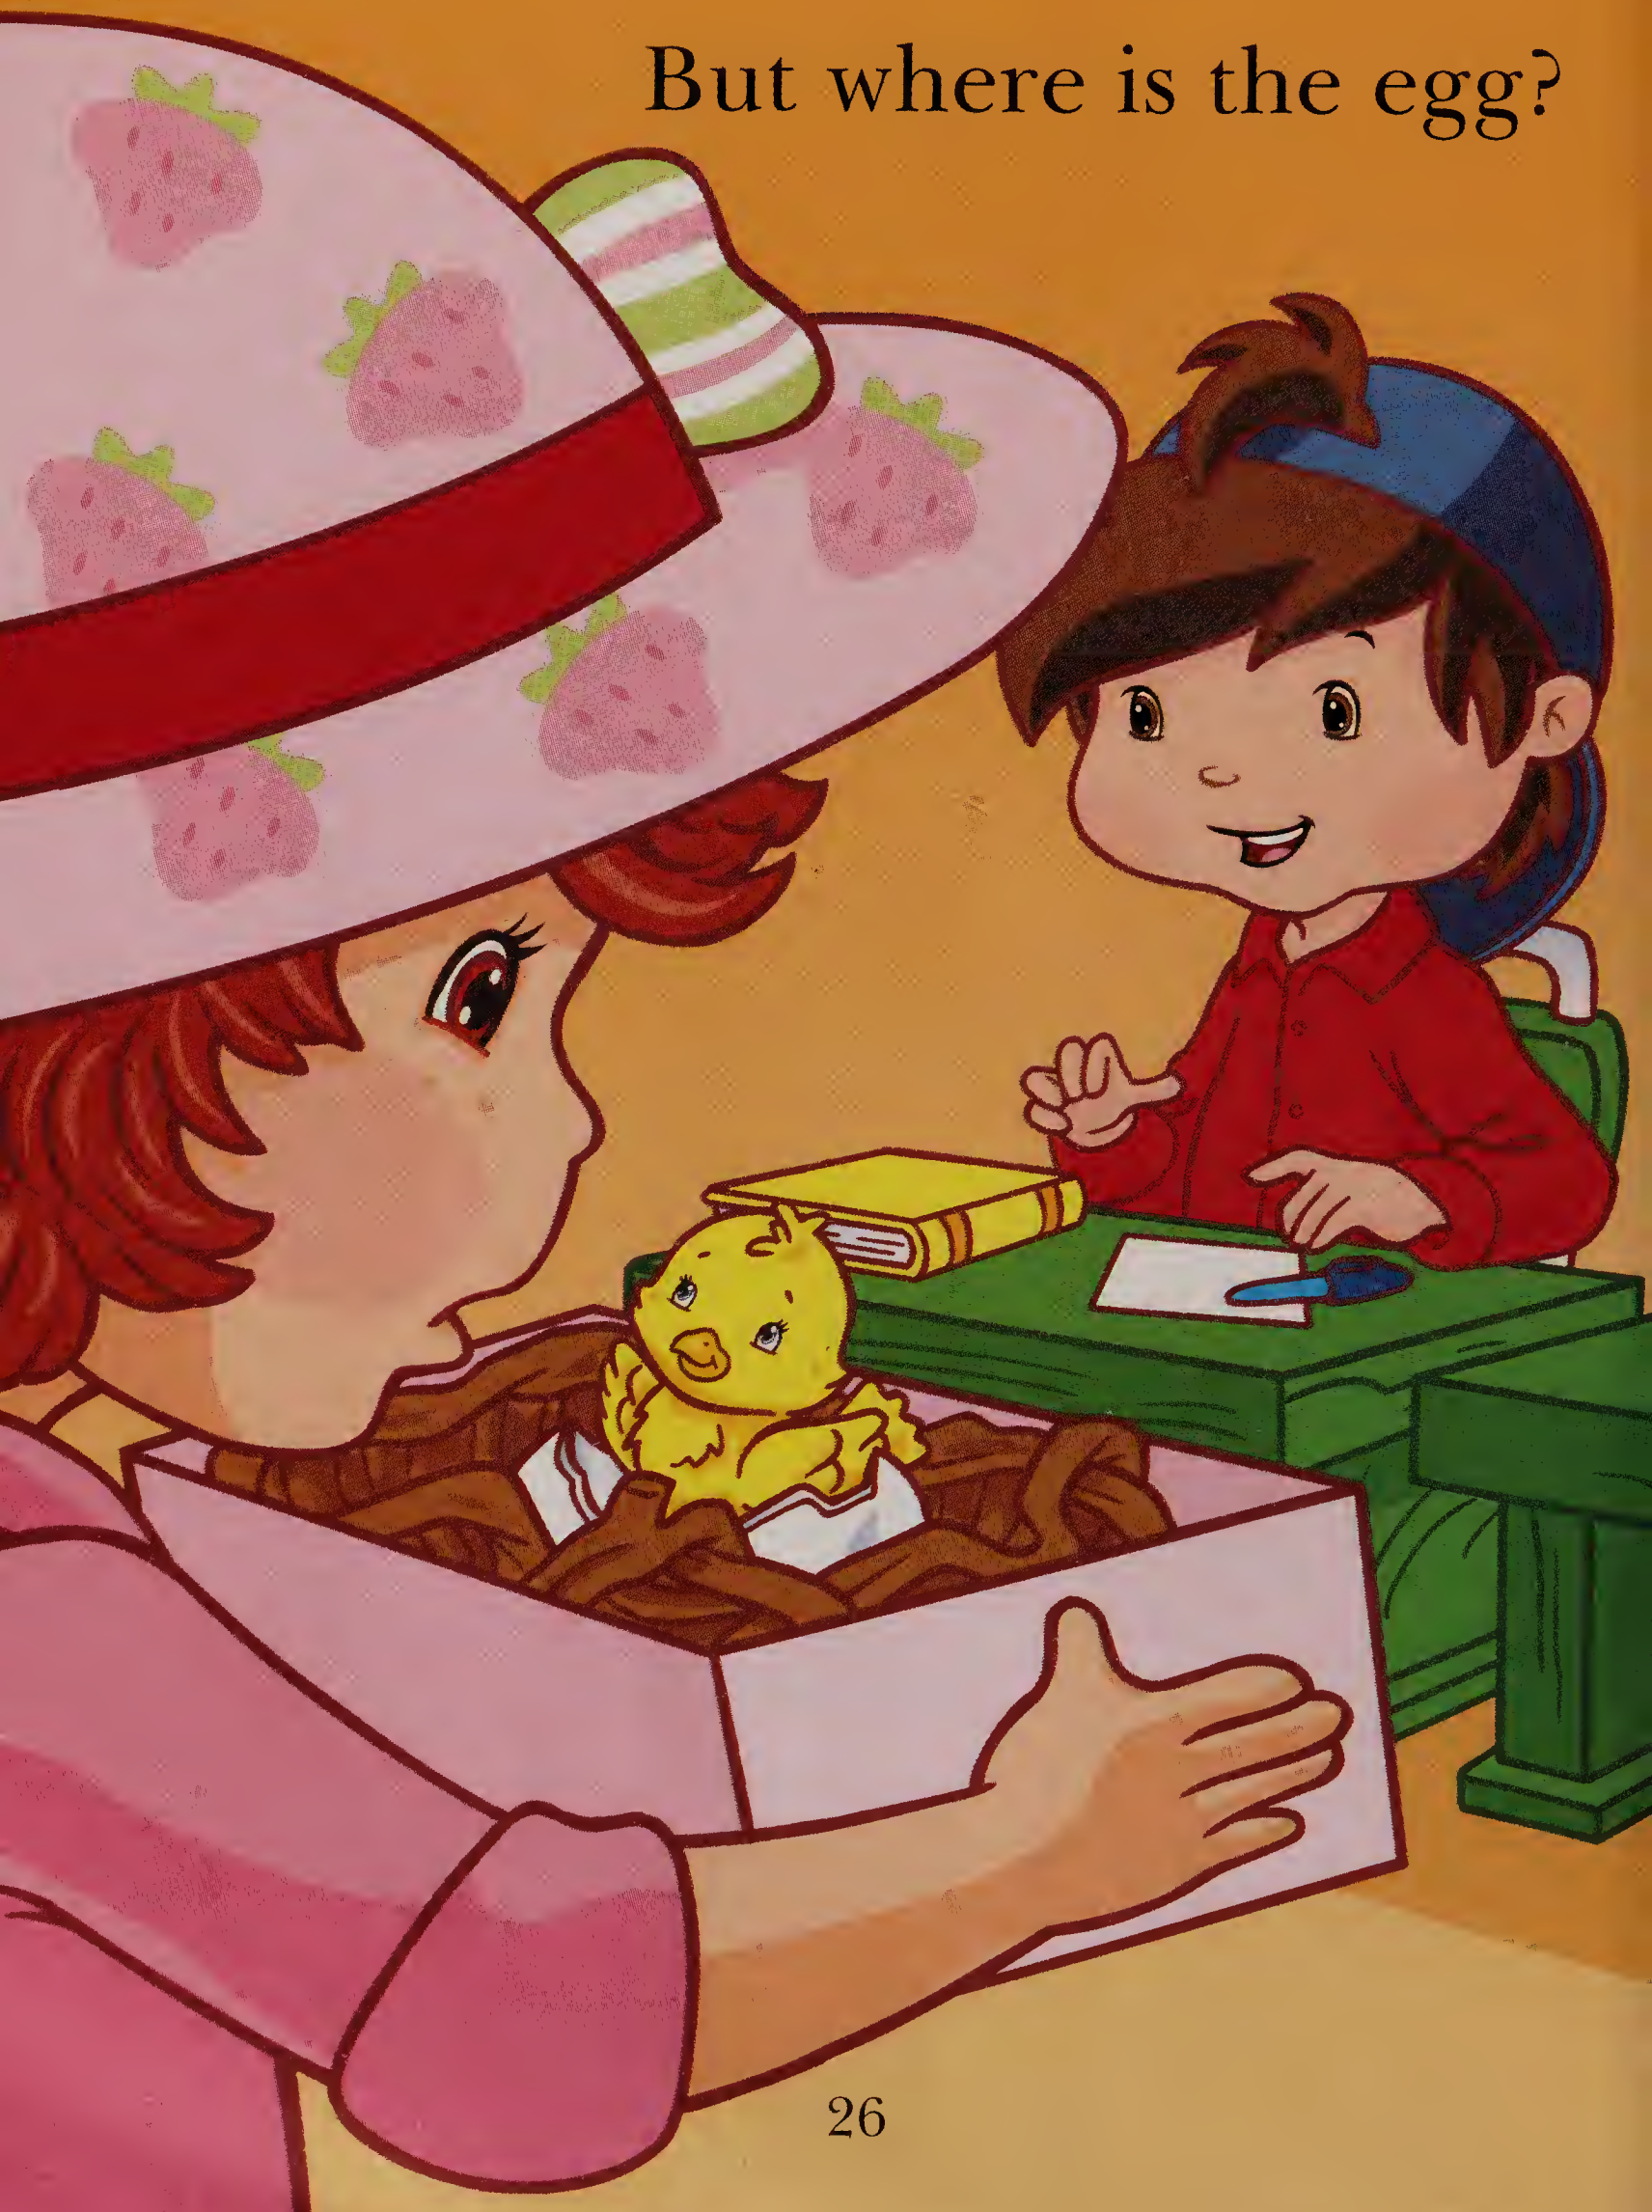
Ginger Snap shows
some cookie cutters.

Then it is

Strawberry Shortcake's turn.

She is berry excited!

Strawberry Shortcake
opens the box.
But where is the egg?



Surprise!

The egg hatched!

Now it is a baby bird!

The baby bird is berry cute.

But it needs a mama bird
to take care of it.

The kids go outside.
They put the nest back
in the tree.

The mama bird

flies home!

What a berry special
show-and-tell surprise!
